The Small City with Big Ideas Experience Manitou Springs Draft Agenda
September 10, 9:00AM - 4:00PM

Across the country and the world, communities are realizing the power of the creative economy and experiential business. Manitou Springs has been supporting creative entrepreneurs before it was trendy, and in partnership with Downtown Colorado, Inc. (DCI) will share the tools, resources, and networks essential to building the systems to feed the business ecosystem.

9:00 - 9:30AM  Coffee and Networking

9:30 - 9:45AM  Introduction to the Downtown Institute

9:45 – 10:30AM  Vision, Challenge, and Opportunity
Speakers each take ten minutes to give a high level overview of their topic, at the end there will be time for Q & A.
- Where are we Going? Natalie Johnson, Manitou Art Center Director
- Balancing Needs for Mobility, Kimley Horn
- Opportunities for the Future, Laura Neumann, Hiawatha Gardens Project Manager

1:30-2:30PM Manitou Arts Center (MAC) Case Study and Tour
Manitou Arts Center (MAC) is dedicated to creating an environment in which artists, tinkerers, and collaborators can flourish. From co-working to makers’ space, tool library or programs for children, MAC is a hub for entrepreneurs and community. MAC will reshape your ideas of what is possible!

2:30 – 3:15PM The Experience Economy: The Business of Bankable Moments
74% of Americans prioritize experiences over products or things. Nationally, it’s estimated that consumers are spending $160 to $180 billion annually on experiences. In 2017, visitors to Colorado spent nearly $21 billion on experiencing our state.
Welcome to the Experience Economy, an economy where moments matter. This panel will unpack how developers, place managers and creative sector workers can collaborate to take advantage of this market opportunity while using this momentum to strategically address community wellness, equity and opportunity.

3:15-3:30PM Q&A Discussion

3:30-4:00PM Happy Hour at the MAC
